By The public claterns in the different parts of the city are being pumped out and cleaned out, preparatory to being repaired and refilled for the fall and winter campaign.

By One of the most important public im provements now being made in our city, is that which has been for some time in progress on Long street, between Fifth and Seventh streets That portion of Long has been heretofore quite apageable in wet weather, and the miring of loaded wagons and other vehicles was no uncommon occurrence. The road-way of the street has been filled up, graded and made a smooth and substantial track. Workmen are now employed in laying down the kerbing and guttering.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE COUNTY CONVENTIO OF THE No PARTY PARTY .- In the report of the permanent officers of this Convention in Tuesday's Statesmen, an error occurred. SAMUEL GALLOWAY, not HENRY WILSON, was President of the Convention.

MADISON TOWNSHIP FAIR,-The Madiso Township Fair commenced yesterday, and will continue until Friday evening. To day Mr. Rank exhibits his famous horse Cruiser.— Madison township is one of the very fines townships of land in Ohio, and very few, if any, excel it in fine stock, and wealthy, enterprising farmers. Their Fair Grounds, located near Groveport, are beautiful. For several years their Fairs have been very successful, excelling many of the County Fairs of the State. No labor or expense has been spared to render their exhibitions interesting, and they have advanced the agricultural and stock-raising interests of the county. The citizens of Columbus should not be backward, in patronizing and encouraging the citizens of Madison in this laudable enterprise. A DARK GOVERNOUS SECTION

THE VARIETIES .- These amusements at the Theater on State Street, are fast winning golden opinions from the lovers of the comic, the ludicrous and the funny. The burlesque circus represented last evening, drew forth bursts of unmitigated laughter. If any one would live up to the spirit of the old proverb-"Laugh and grow fat"-let him or her witness the Varieties at the Theater.
